1. Introduction

Welcome to the DSAIN websites ("Websites").

DSAIN (Distributed Sovereign AI Infrastructure Nodes Technology) is a concept-stage infrastructure initiative focused on the development of a distributed network of sovereign AI-ready infrastructure nodes across Germany and Europe.

The Websites are intended to provide information regarding the DSAIN concept, infrastructure vision, research activities, strategic objectives, stakeholder engagement opportunities, municipal cooperation initiatives, industry partnerships, and related project developments.

These Terms of Use govern access to and use of the Websites and all information, documents, graphics, visualizations, and other materials made available through the Websites.

By accessing or using the Websites, users agree to be bound by these Terms of Use.

2. Acceptance of Terms

By accessing, browsing, or otherwise using the Websites, users acknowledge that they have read, understood, and accepted these Terms of Use.

If a user does not agree with these Terms of Use, the user should discontinue use of the Websites immediately.

DSAINTE reserves the right to modify these Terms of Use at any time in accordance with Section 12 of this document.

3. Informational Purpose Only

All information provided on the Websites is intended solely for general informational, educational, research, and discussion purposes.

Website content may include, among other things:

- infrastructure concepts;
- technical descriptions;
- strategic roadmaps;
- financial models;
- master plans;
- architectural visualizations;
- sustainability objectives;
- governance concepts;
- research initiatives;
- infrastructure development strategies.

Such information is provided for informational purposes only and should not be interpreted as professional, legal, engineering, financial, investment, tax, accounting, or business advice.

Users remain solely responsible for evaluating any information published on the Websites and for obtaining independent professional advice where appropriate.

4. Concept Development Disclaimer

DSAINTE is currently a concept-stage infrastructure initiative.

The Websites may contain forward-looking concepts, assumptions, projections, indicative technical specifications, preliminary infrastructure designs, conceptual financial models, implementation scenarios, expansion plans, and strategic development roadmaps.

Users acknowledge and agree that:

- DSAINTE remains under ongoing development;
- information presented may evolve over time;
- project specifications may be modified;

- infrastructure concepts may be revised;
- technical architectures may change;
- implementation schedules may change;
- development priorities may change;
- financial assumptions may be updated;
- future project outcomes cannot be guaranteed.

Any references to:

- timelines;
- implementation schedules;
- financial figures;
- performance indicators;
- operational targets;
- infrastructure capacities;
- expansion plans;
- technical specifications;

are illustrative and indicative only unless expressly stated otherwise.

DSAINTE reserves the right to modify, update, remove, or replace Website content at any time without prior notice.

Official Disclaimer

Concept Development Document – not an offer of securities or investment solicitation.

5. No Investment Advice

The Websites do not provide investment advice.

Nothing contained on the Websites shall be construed as:

- investment advice;
- financial advice;
- securities advice;
- investment recommendations;
- fundraising material;
- an offer to sell securities;
- a solicitation to purchase securities;
- an invitation to invest;

- a capital raising document;
- a prospectus;
- an offering memorandum.

Any references to infrastructure development, project economics, market opportunities, financing concepts, capital requirements, business models, or projected outcomes are provided solely for informational and conceptual purposes.

Users should obtain independent legal, financial, investment, accounting, engineering, or professional advice before making any decisions based upon information available on the Websites.

DSAINTE does not accept responsibility for any decisions made based upon Website content.

6. Intellectual Property Rights

All content available on the Websites is protected by applicable intellectual property laws.

Protected materials may include:

- DSAINTE trademarks;
- logos;
- visual identities;
- graphics;
- renderings;
- illustrations;
- maps;
- infrastructure concepts;
- architectural concepts;
- network designs;
- technical documentation;
- written content;
- reports;
- presentations;
- financial models;
- governance frameworks;
- website design elements;
- source materials.

Unless otherwise stated, all rights are reserved.

Users may view, download, or print Website content solely for personal, informational, non-commercial purposes.

Without prior written authorization, users may not:

- reproduce Website content;
- modify Website content;
- distribute Website content;
- commercially exploit Website content;
- publish Website content;
- create derivative works based upon Website content;
- use DSAINT intellectual property for commercial purposes.

Unauthorized use may result in legal action under applicable intellectual property laws.

7. Website Availability

DSAINTE strives to maintain Website availability and accuracy but does not guarantee:

- uninterrupted operation;
- continuous availability;
- error-free functionality;
- permanent accessibility;
- freedom from technical defects;
- compatibility with all devices or browsers.

Website services may be interrupted due to:

- maintenance activities;
- software updates;
- security measures;
- infrastructure changes;
- technical failures;
- events beyond DSAINT's control.

DSAINTE reserves the right to suspend, modify, or discontinue any part of the Websites at any time.

8. External Links

The Websites may contain links to third-party websites, resources, documents, platforms, or services.

Examples may include:

- government institutions;
- research organizations;
- universities;
- industry associations;
- LinkedIn;
- GitHub;
- technology companies;
- infrastructure organizations.

These external websites operate independently from DSAINT.

DSAINTE has no control over and assumes no responsibility for:

- external content;
- website availability;
- privacy practices;
- security measures;
- accuracy of information;
- third-party services.

Accessing external websites occurs at the user's own risk.

9. Limitation of Liability

To the fullest extent permitted under applicable German law, DSAINT excludes liability for damages arising from the use of the Websites.

In particular, DSAINT shall not be liable for:

- indirect damages;
- incidental damages;
- consequential damages;
- special damages;
- loss of profits;
- loss of business opportunities;

- loss of revenue;
- loss of goodwill;
- loss of data;
- business interruption;
- technical disruptions;
- reliance upon Website information.

DSAINTE does not warrant that information available on the Websites is complete, current, accurate, or suitable for any particular purpose.

Nothing in these Terms excludes liability where exclusion is prohibited by mandatory law.

10. User Conduct

Users agree to use the Websites lawfully and responsibly.

Users shall not:

- violate applicable laws;
- interfere with Website operation;
- attempt unauthorized access;
- circumvent security measures;
- misuse communication systems;
- submit false information;
- overload infrastructure resources;
- distribute malicious software;
- transmit harmful code;
- conduct automated attacks;
- engage in activities that may damage DSAINTE systems.

DSAINTE reserves the right to restrict access where misuse is suspected.

11. Privacy and Data Protection

DSAINTE is committed to protecting personal data and processing information in accordance with:

- Regulation (EU) 2016/679 (GDPR);
- German Federal Data Protection Act (BDSG);
- applicable German and European data protection laws.

Further information regarding personal data processing is provided in the DSAINT Privacy Policy.

Users are encouraged to review the Privacy Policy before using Website services or submitting information through contact forms.

12. Changes to Terms

DSAINTE reserves the right to amend, modify, update, or replace these Terms of Use at any time.

Updated versions shall become effective upon publication on the Websites unless otherwise stated.

Users are encouraged to review these Terms periodically.

Continued use of the Websites following publication of revised Terms constitutes acceptance of the updated Terms.

13. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

These Terms of Use shall be governed exclusively by the laws of the Federal Republic of Germany.

Any disputes arising out of or relating to the use of the Websites shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the competent courts in Germany, to the extent permitted by applicable law.

Mandatory consumer protection provisions under applicable law remain unaffected.
